LIFE and WORK of DWIGHT L. MOODY THE GREAT EVANGELIST

The Founder of Northfield Seminary, Mount Hermon School for Boys, and the Chicago Bible Institute.

A full account of his boyhood and early life. Business life in Chicago. Y. M. C. A. Work. Civil War record. Mission Work. Building his first church and Farwell Hall. Convention Work. Meeting Ira D. Sankey. Work after the great Chicago fire. Shaking all England by sermon and song. Great work in Scotland. Return to America. Great Revival in Philadelphia. Continued Evangelistic work. Great World's Fair campaign. Northfield Conferences. Northfield Seminary. Mount Hermon Boys' School. Chicago Bible Institute. Last Campaign in Kansas City. Return to Northfield. Dying words, "Earth recedes, Heaven opens; God is calling me; this is my triumph; this is my coronation day!" In his life he influenced more souls for Jesus than any other man, and in his death God called him, to place on his brow a crown with many stars. As thousands crowded the "Moody Meetings" to hear him preach while living, so now thousands read this thrilling and inspiring volume, that they may preserve and keep fresh in memory the complete record of his Great Life and Work. It contains over 400 pages and over 60 halftone engravings. A handsome volume, showing us the Boy, the Man, the Preacher, the Educator, and the Philanthropist; replete with Reminiscences, Anecdotes and Illustrations.

Bound in Art Vellum Cloth, Stamped in Four Colors, price $1.25

A copy of this thrilling and soul-stirring volume should be in every Christian home.

THE World's Greatest Evangelist, whose burning words have touched the hearts of so many thousands, has passed to his reward. His voice will no more fill large earthly auditoriums, nor stir vast audiences, but his life stands as a monitor to the world's masses. No single figure has influenced so many minds. No single voice has touched so many hearts. No other man has done such a life-work for mankind.

We will send you this magnificent book and the best paper we can make for one year on receipt of price first named above. If you are now a subscriber, we will send the paper one year from the date your present subscription expires. Renew your subscription at once and take advantage of this liberal offer.

By special arrangements with the publishers we are able to make our readers the most liberal premium offer ever made to them. The books we have selected are specially suited for holiday gifts, and one or the other, or all of them should be in every home. Most of them are juvenile books and just the thing for the young people and the children. They are beautifully illustrated, and a more appropriate holiday gift than a good book can not be found.

Please remember we will send any one of these books as a premium to the person who will get us one new subscriber to the EVANGELIST at $1.50. This is the best offer we have ever made, and we feel sure our readers will take advantage of it.

Every New subscriber will get the paper from the time the subscription is received to the end of the year 1901. This is an additional inducement, for it means that you get the paper fourteen months and the premium, all for $1.50.

To those who renew their subscription to the paper (no matter when it expires) we will send the Life of D. L. Moody free, plus postage and packing 25 cents. In other words for $1.75 we will extend your paper one year and send you the Life of D. L. Moody free postpaid. This offer is so liberal that it must be limited to December 1, 1900.

If you already have these books or any of them, go to your neighbor and tell him that he can have the EVANGELIST for one year and the Life of D. L. Moody, all for $1.50. Agents and others interested in enlarging the subscription list of the EVANGELIST and thus enlarging its usefulness will find this the very best time to canvass for new subscriptions. You can offer your neighbor a book worth $1.25 and a paper worth $1.50, both for $1.50. Hundreds will take advantage of this offer if it is presented to them. Will you do it?

OTHER PREMIUMS.

Should any of our readers desire to canvass during the month of November and December we can give the very best terms on the above books, and a number of others, among them, "The Life Triumphant," and the "Triumphs and Wonders of the Nineteenth Century," both most excellent selling books. Descriptive circulars of all the above books will be sent free to those who desire to act as agent.

Let there be a grand rally for new subscriptions; a more liberal offer you need not look for. A little effort on the part of every reader or subscriber of the EVANGELIST will enable us to begin the new century with 3,000 subscribers. Go to work at once.
